Seasonal Savings: For the price of a Multiday Ticket, Return Free through Dec. 31

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (Sept. 1, 2020) – This September and October, for the price of a Colonial Williamsburg Multiday ticket, guests can enjoy admission through Dec. 31 to Historic Area sites, the expanded Art Museums of Colonial Williamsburg, and regular programming during the magical fall and holiday seasons.

Enjoy fall foliage, a getaway for Thanksgiving, holiday decorations and more with this special offer, which includes access to the expanded Art Museums of Colonial Williamsburg and free Visitor Center parking. Tickets, available for purchase at colonialwilliamsburg.org/savings, provide access to a selection of guided sites, historic trades and gardens, as well as performances at Charlton Stage and the Art Museums' Hennage Auditorium.

Highlights awaiting guests at the expanded Art Museums include the exhibitions “British Masterworks: Ninety Years of Collecting at Colonial Williamsburg” at the DeWitt Wallace

Decorative Arts Museum and “American Folk Art Pottery: Art and Tradition” and “The Art of Edward Hicks” at the Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Folk Art Museum.

Selected Colonial Williamsburg indoor and open-air sites operate at reduced capacity and follow site-specific safety guidelines developed as part of the foundation’s COVID-19 business resumption plan, consistent with the state’s Phase 3 reopening requirements.

During Colonial Williamsburg’s Phase 3 reopening, most interpretive programming has been moved outdoors. For the safety of employees and the public, ticketed guests can expect limited interaction with interpretive staff. Site entry is limited by state-mandated capacity guidelines for social gatherings, and guests are encouraged to proceed quickly through interpretive sites to accommodate as many visitors as possible.

Face coverings are required while inside foundation-owned buildings and their use is encouraged outdoors as well. Guests are also asked to adhere to social distancing guidelines during their visit to Colonial Williamsburg sites, when walking along Duke of Gloucester Street and in other publicly accessible areas. Most doors, faucets and other high-traffic touchpoints are now touchless, and there are significantly enhanced cleaning protocols throughout the foundation’s open locations.

The promotional offer cannot be combined with any other discounts or offers. Colonial Williamsburg Multiday Passes – $40.99 and $23.99 for youths ages 6-12 – normally provide admission limited to three consecutive days. Online ticket purchases and digital redemption via mobile device are encouraged and are available at colonialwilliamsburg.org/savings, which lists additional “touchless” ticketing details as well as options for guests who prefer to use paper tickets.

Colonial Williamsburg Pass members save 10 percent off the best available rate at all Colonial Williamsburg Resorts hotels. Five official hotels and guesthouses are conveniently located within and surrounding the Historic Area, just minutes from all the action. Reservations and additional information are available by visiting colonialwilliamsburgresorts.com.

The Colonial Williamsburg Foundation preserves, restores and operates Virginia’s 18th-century capital of Williamsburg. Innovative and interactive experiences highlight the relevance of the American Revolution to contemporary life and the importance of an informed, active citizenry. The Colonial Williamsburg experience includes more than 600 restored or reconstructed original buildings, renowned museums of decorative arts and folk art, extensive educational outreach programs for students and teachers, lodging, including the Forbes 5-star Williamsburg Inn, culinary options from historic taverns to casual or elegant dining, the Golden Horseshoe Golf Club featuring 45 holes designed by Robert Trent Jones and his son Rees Jones, a full-service spa and fitness center, pools, retail stores and gardens. Philanthropic support and revenue from admissions, products and hospitality operations sustain Colonial Williamsburg's educational programs and preservation initiatives.
